OVER 100 EXECUTIVES, PRACTITIONERS AND INDUSTRY SUPPLIERS FROM THE LONDON MARKET GATHERED AT THE PRESTIGIOUS BANKING HALL IN THE CITY ON 20TH JUNE 2017, FOR A SPECTACULAR CHARITY FASHION GALA AND AUCTION, TO HELP RAISE FUNDS FOR THE HAVEN HOUSE CHILDREN'S HOSPICE.

At the event, created and hosted by LMForums, guests enjoyed a magnificent drinks reception; three course gala dinner, accompanied by classical musicians and an amazing fashion show. Amongst those dressing up on the night, was former Saracens rugby star, now Starstone underwriter, Hayden Smith, various Heads of Claims and Operations from companies such as QBE, Neon Underwriting, Allied World and JLT and even the LMForums founder, Roger Oldham, took to the runway himself.

During the lively auction, London Market companies were bidding against each other for a variety of exciting gifts and experiences following which, Hayden Smith kindly drew the winners of the Grand Prize Draw. Thanks to the generosity of the event supporters and the guests, over £8,000 was raised on the night for the Hospice – a truly wonderful achievement. Thanks to SuitSupply and Paule Ka for supplying the amazing outfits.

An evening to remember!
